As your insurance broker, we will provide the following services:

Pre-placement services

- Help you identify and assess your risks and develop a proposal to submit to potential insurer/s;
- Providing advice on risk mitigation and management strategies

Insurance placement and premium financing

- Seek insurance quotes (for more information see "Approaching the Market")
- Negotiate policy coverage and policy renewal annually or as otherwise agreed
- Seek to bind coverage where you have authorised us to do so (except in urgent circumstances where unless you instruct otherwise, we may choose to bind insurance on your behalf if we consider that is in your best interests)
- Obtain and provide a quotation for premium funding

Post-placement services

- Prepare and manage claims if an insured event occurs
- Advocate on your behalf during the claims process

Approaching the market

We will seek quotes from the broader general insurance market before making a recommendation. We have arrangements with multiple insurers and underwriters, which enables us to find the right insurance product for you. In certain circumstances, we will not seek multiple quotations for you. Instead, and only where we believe it is appropriate for your needs, we may approach only one insurer.

Continuity of Cover

It is important that you maintain continuity of cover. Accordingly, if a contract of insurance falls due and we are unable to contact you, we will automatically arrange for the policy to be held covered (or renewed if necessary), however there may be insurance contracts that we will need a proposal form or declaration completed by you and returned to us in order for renewal terms being considered and offered by the Insurer. If this is the case we will advise you in advance of the policy expiry. If you do not require the cover, we do ask that you tell us as soon as possible. A short-term premium may apply. Please tell us if you do not wish for us to provide this service.

Remuneration

In return for the services we provide, we will receive a commission usually between 0 and 35 per cent of the premium paid (excluding relevant taxes, charges and levies) which is paid to us by the insurer and a fee, payable by you.

Policy Cancellation

If a cover is reduced or cancelled before the expiry of the period of insurance, and provided the relevant policy contains a cancellation clause allowing a cancellation, we reserve the right to refund to you only the net return premium we receive from the insurer and not refund any part of the brokerage and/or broker fee we receive for arranging the cover. A broker fee may be charged to process the reduction (alteration or adjustment) or cancellation.

Payment Terms

You are required to pay outstanding premiums to Apollo Risk Services within 14 days – as set out on our invoice.

When providing advice we will take into consideration your personal objectives, financial situation or needs before making a recommendation. In order to provide this personalised advice, we rely on you to provide accurate and complete information. If we do not have this information, before taking any action you should consider whether the advice we have provided is appropriate to you having regard to your individual circumstances. - We or Apollo Risk Services may receive remuneration, commission, and/or other benefits when we provide personal advice to you in relation to insurance products and other financial products;

When you ask us to recommend an insurance policy for you, we will usually only consider the policies offered by the insurers or insurance providers that we deal with regularly. In giving you advice about the costs and terms of recommended policies we have not compared those policies to other policies available, other than from those insurers we deal with regularly.

Product Disclosure Statement

If we offer to arrange the issue of an insurance policy to you, we will also provide you with, or pass on to you, a product disclosure statement (PDS), unless you already have an up to date PDS from the insurer. The PDS will contain information about the policy, which will enable you to make an informed decision about purchasing that product.

From when does this FSG apply?

This FSG applies from 19th May 2025 and remains valid unless a further FSG is issued to replace it. We may give you a supplementary FSG. It will not replace this FSG but will cover services not covered by this FSG.

Apollo Risk Services holds a current Australian Financial Services Licence No: 403727. The contact details for Apollo Risk Services are on page 1 of this FSG.

What kinds of financial services are you authorised to provide to me and what kinds of financial product/s do those services relate to?

Carbon Insurance Brokers is authorised to advise and deal in general insurance products to wholesale and/or retail clients. We will do this on your behalf as your broker unless we tell you otherwise.

Sometimes we will act under a binder or agency Apollo Risk Services has from an insurer. When we act under a binder or agency, we will be acting as the agent of the insurer. This means that we represent and act for the insurer, not for you. We will tell you when we act under a binder or agency to arrange your insurance or advise you about your insurance needs.

Will I receive tailored advice?

Maybe not in all cases. However, we may need information about your personal objectives, details of your current financial situation and any relevant information, so that we can arrange insurance policies for you, or to give you advice about your insurance needs. We will ask you for the details that we need to know.

In some cases, we will not ask for any of this information. If we do not ask, or if you do not give us all the information we ask for, any advice you receive may not be appropriate to your needs, objectives, and financial situation.

You should read the warnings contained in any SOA, or any other warnings that we give you, carefully before making any decision about an insurance policy.

Where we provide you with advice about your insurance arrangements, that advice is current at the time that we give it. We will review your insurance arrangements when you inform us about changes in your circumstances, or upon renewal of your insurances.

Contractual liability and your insurance cover

Many commercial or business contracts contain clauses dealing with your liability (including indemnities or hold harmless clauses). Such clauses may entitle your insurers to reduce cover, or in some cases, refuse to indemnify you at all. You should seek legal advice before signing and accepting contracts. You should inform us of any clauses of this nature before you enter into them.

What information do you maintain in my file and can I examine my file?

Apollo Risk Services maintain a record of your personal profile, including details of insurance policies that we arrange for you. Apollo Risk Services may also maintain records of any recommendations or advice given to you. Apollo Risk Services will retain this FSG and any other FSG given to you as well as any SOA or PDS that we give or pass on to you for the period required by law.

Apollo Risk Services and we are committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy, which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. A copy of Apollo Risk's privacy policy is available on request. A copy is also available on Apollo Risk's Website www.apolloriskservices.com.au.

If you wish to look at your file, please ask us and we will arrange for you to do so.

How will I pay for the services provided?

Payment for the services we provide you are payable directly to Apollo Risk Services.

For each insurance product, the insurer will charge a premium that includes any relevant taxes, charges, and levies.

Apollo Risk Services often receive a payment based on a percentage of this premium (excluding relevant taxes, charges, and levies) called commission, which is paid to Apollo Risk Services by the insurers. In some cases you will also be charged a fee. These will all be shown on the invoice that is sent to you.

You can choose to pay by any of the payment methods set out in the invoice. You are required to pay Apollo Risk Services within the time set out on the invoice.

If there is a refund or reduction of your premium as a result of a cancellation or alteration to a policy or based on a term of your policy (such as a premium adjustment provision), we will retain any fee we have charged you. we will also retain commission depending on our arrangements with the insurer or charge you a cancellation fee equal to the reduction in commission.

When you pay us your premium it will be banked into Apollo Risk Services' trust account. Apollo Risk Services will retain the commission from the premium you pay us and remit the balance to the insurer in accordance with Apollo Risk Services' arrangements with the insurer. Apollo Risk Services' will earn interest on the premium while it is in our trust account, or Apollo Risk Services may invest the premium and earn a return. Apollo Risk Services will retain any interest or return on investment earned on the premium.

How are any commissions, fees or other benefits calculated for providing the financial services?

Apollo Risk Services' commission will be calculated based on the following formula: $X = Y\% \times P$

In this formula:

X = Apollo Risk Services' commission

Y% = the percentage commission paid to Apollo Risk Services by the insurer. Apollo Risk Services' commission varies between 0 and 35%.

P = the amount you pay for any insurance policy (less any government fees or charges included in that amount).

You may be charged a fee for service as well as, or instead of commission. The fee charged will depend on the complexity and level of advice sought and provided, and the time spent on your insurance needs. The fee will be shown on the invoice that we send to you.

Apollo Risk Services do not often pay any commissions, fees or benefits to others who refer you to us or refer us to an insurer. If Apollo Risk Services do, Apollo Risk Services will pay commissions to those people out of it's commission or fees (not in addition to those amounts), in the range of 0% to 30% of our commission or fees.

Our employees that will assist you with your insurance needs will be paid a market salary. They may receive bonuses payable based on performance criteria.

If we give you personal advice, we will inform you of any fees, commission or other payments we, our associates or anyone referring you to us (or us to any insurer) will receive in relation to the policies that are the subject of the advice.

See below for information on the Steadfast association and commission.

Do you have any relationships or associations with the insurers who issue the insurance policies or any other material relationships?

Apollo Risk Services is a Steadfast Group Limited (Steadfast) Network Broker.

As a Steadfast Network Broker, Apollo Risk Services have access to services including model operating and compliance tools, procedures, manuals and training, legal, technical, HR, contractual liability advice and assistance, group insurance arrangements, product comparison and placement support, claims support, group purchasing arrangements and broker support services. These services are either funded by Steadfast, subsidised by Steadfast or available exclusively to Steadfast Network Brokers for a fee.

Steadfast has arrangements with some insurers and premium funders (Partners) under which the Partners pay Steadfast a fee to access strategic and technological support and the Steadfast Broker Network. Steadfast is also a shareholder of some Partners. You can obtain a copy of Steadfast's FSG at www.steadfast.com.au.

If we arrange premium funding for you, we may be paid a commission by the premium funder. We may also charge you a fee (or both). The commission that Apollo Risk Services are paid by the premium funder is usually calculated as a percentage of your insurance premium (including government fees or changes). If you instruct us to arrange or issue a product, this is when Apollo Risk Services become entitled to the commission.

Apollo Risk Services' commission rates for premium funding are in the range of 0% to 5% of funded premium. When we arrange premium funding for you, you can ask us what commission rates we are paid for that funding arrangement compared to the other arrangements that were available to you.

Some insurers may give benefits such as sponsorship of annual conferences, training and invitations to social business functions. The receipt of these benefits may be based upon the volume of business placed with the Insurer or an ad hoc reward. Occasionally we may also receive small gifts and gratuities. Our decision to place business with an Insurer is based on the fact that they provide the best solution for you and not based on any incentive.

PRIVACY POLICY

Carbon Insurance Brokers Global Pty Ltd T/As Carbon Insurance Brokers are an Authorised Representative (No: 000468039) of Apollo Risk Services Pty Ltd T/As Apollo Risk Services, who holds an Australian Financial Services Licence number 403727 under the Corporations Act 2001.

This Privacy Policy applies to Apollo Risk Services and our Authorised Representatives.

At Apollo Risk Services, we are committed to protecting your privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles. This Privacy Policy describes our current policies and practices in relation to the collection, handling, use and disclosure of personal information. It also deals with how you can complain about a breach of the privacy laws and how you can access the personal information we hold and how to have that information corrected.

What information do we collect and how do we use it?

When we arrange insurance on your behalf, we ask you for the information we need to advise you about your insurance needs and management of your risks. This can include a broad range of information ranging from your name, address, contact details, age to other information about your personal affairs including your assets, personal belongings, financial situation, health and wellbeing. We provide any information that the insurers or intermediaries who we ask to quote for your insurances and premium funding require to enable them to decide whether to insure you and on what terms or to fund your premium and on what terms.

Insurers may in turn pass on this information to their reinsurers. Some of these companies are located outside Australia. For example, if we seek insurance terms from an overseas insurer (e.g. Lloyd's of London), your personal information may be disclosed to the insurer. If this is likely to happen, we inform you of where the insurer is located, if it is possible to do so.

When you make a claim under your policy, we assist you by collecting information about your claim. Sometimes we also need to collect information about you from others. We provide this information to your insurer (or anyone your insurer has appointed to assist it to consider your claim, eg loss adjusters, medical brokers etc) to enable it to consider your claim. Again, this information may be passed on to reinsurers.

From time to time, we will use your contact details to send you direct marketing communications including offers, updates and newsletters that are relevant to the services we provide. We always give you the option of electing not to receive these communications in the future. You can unsubscribe by notifying us and we will no longer send this information to you.

What if you don't provide some information to us?

We can only fully advise you and assist in arranging your insurance or with a claim if we have all relevant information. The insurance laws also require you to provide your insurers with the information they need in order to be able to decide whether to insure you and on what terms. You have a duty to disclose the information which is relevant to the insurer's decision to insure you.

When do we disclose your information overseas?

If you ask us to seek insurance terms and we recommend an overseas insurer, we may be required to disclose the information to the insurer located outside Australia. For example, if we recommend a policy provided by Lloyd's of London, your information may be given to the Lloyd's broker and underwriters at Lloyd's of London to make a decision about whether to insure you.

We will tell you at time of advising on your insurance if they are overseas and in which country the insurer is located. If the insurer is not regulated by laws which protects your information in a way that is similar to the Privacy Act, we will seek your consent before disclosing your information to that insurer.

Australian and overseas insurers acquire reinsurance from reinsurance companies that are located throughout the world so in some cases your information may be disclosed to them for assessment of risks and in order to provide reinsurance to your insurer. We do not make this disclosure. This is made by the insurer (if necessary) for the placement for their reinsurance program.

We may also disclose information we collect to the providers of our policy administration and broking systems that help us to provide our products and services to you. These policy administration providers and broking systems may be supported and maintained by organisations in New Zealand, the Philippines and Vietnam and your information may be disclosed to those organisations. Please note that the Privacy Act and Australian Privacy Principles may not apply to these organisations.

How do we hold and protect your information?

We strive to maintain the reliability, accuracy, completeness, and currency of the personal information we hold and to protect its privacy and security. We keep personal information only for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purpose for which it was collected or to comply with any applicable legal or ethical reporting or document retention requirements.

We hold the information we collect from you initially in a working file, which when completed is electronically imaged and stored. After which any paper is destroyed in our onsite shredder. In some cases, your file is archived and sent to an external data storage provider for a period of time. We only use storage providers located in Australia who are also regulated by the Privacy Act.

We ensure that your information is safe by protecting it from unauthorised access, modification, and disclosure. We maintain physical security over our paper and electronic data and premises, by using locks and security systems. We also maintain computer and network security; for example, we use firewalls (security measures for the Internet) and other security systems such as user identifiers and passwords to control access to computer systems where your information is stored.

Will we disclose the information we collect to anyone?

We do not sell, trade, or rent your personal information to others.

We may need to provide your information to contractors who supply services to us, e.g. to handle mailings on our behalf, external data storage providers or to other companies in the event of a corporate sale, merger, re-organisation, dissolution, or similar event. We may also disclose information we collect to the providers of our policy administration and broking systems that help us to provide our products and services to you. However, we will take reasonable measures to ensure that they protect your information as required under the Privacy Act.

We may provide your information to others if we are required to do so by law, you consent to the disclosure or under some unusual other circumstances which the Privacy Act permits.

How can you check, update or change the information we are holding?

Upon receipt of your written request and sufficient information to allow us to identify the information, we will disclose to you the personal information we hold about you. We will also correct, amend, or delete any personal information that we agree is inaccurate, irrelevant, out of date or incomplete.

If you wish to access or correct your personal information, please write to our Privacy Officer, Mark Taylor at Apollo Risk Services Pty Ltd, Unit 3, 97 Hector Street West, Osborne Park WA 6017.

We do not charge for receiving a request for access to personal information or for complying with a correction request. Where the information requested is not a straightforward issue and will involve a considerable amount of time then a charge will need to be confirmed for responding to the request for the information.

In some limited cases, we may need to refuse access to your information or refuse a request for correction. We will advise you as soon as possible after your request if this is the case and the reasons for our refusal.

What happens if you want to complain?

If you have concerns about whether we have complied with the Privacy Act or this Privacy Policy when collecting or handling your personal information, please write to our Privacy Officer, Mark Taylor at Apollo Risk Services Pty Ltd, Unit 3, 97 Hector Street West, Osborne Park WA 6017.

Your complaint will be considered by us through our Internal Complaints Resolution Process. We will acknowledge your complaint within 24 hours and we will respond with a decision within 30 days of you making the complaint. If we need to investigate your complaint and require further time, we will work with you to agree to an appropriate timeframe to investigate. We will provide you with information concerning referring your complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) if we cannot resolve your complaint.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

We have prepared this document to assist you to understand important issues relating to your insurances. We recommend that you read it carefully. Please contact your Account Manager if there is anything you do not understand, or if you have any questions.

Duty of disclosure (non-consumer insurance contracts only)

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect the insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until the insurer agrees to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell the insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk they insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- the insurer knows, or should know; or
- the insurer waives your duty to tell them about.

If you do not tell the insurer something

If you do not tell the insurer anything you are required to, they may cancel your contract or reduce the amount they will pay you if you make a claim or both.

If your failure to tell the insurer is fraudulent, they may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation (consumer insurance contracts)

Duty to not make a misrepresentation - (consumer insurance contracts only)

(Note: if you are renewing, applying for, or varying an existing consumer insurance contract, which is an insurance policy obtained wholly or predominately in relation to personal, domestic or household insurance purposes, you must answer the specific questions asked by the insurer truthfully and accurately. In answering those questions, you must tell the insurer all information that's known to you and that a reasonable person would be expected to provide in answer to the questions).

You have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (ICA) to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer (your duty).

Your duty applies only in respect of a policy that is a consumer insurance contract, which is a term defined in the ICA.

Your duty applies before you enter into the policy, and also before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate the policy.

Before you do any of these things, you may be required to answer questions and the insurer will use the answers you provide in deciding whether to insure you, and anyone else to be insured under the policy, and on what terms. To ensure you meet your duty, your answers to the questions must be truthful, accurate and complete.

If you fail to meet your duty, the insurer may be able to cancel your contract or reduce the amount it will pay if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure is fraudulent, the insurer may be able to refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

People you represent

You must make sure you explain the Duty of Disclosure to any person you represent when we arrange any insurance cover for you. Alternatively, you may ask any person you represent to contact us and we will explain their Duty of Disclosure to them directly.

Duty of good faith

Both parties to an insurance contract, the insurer and the insured, must act towards each other with the utmost good faith. If you fail to do so, the insurer may be able to cancel your insurance. If the insurer fails to do so, you may be able to sue the insurer.

Underinsurance

Underinsurance occurs when you have not insured the full repair or replacement value of your property/asset. If you are underinsured, your insurer may rely on any 'Average' or 'Co-insurance' clause in the insurance policy. This means you may not receive full compensation for your loss and would have to bear part of the loss yourself.

Reviewing the sums insured and declared values on a regular basis and at each renewal will help you to ensure that you have maximum protection under your policies.

You need to decide whether to increase the sums insured or declared values of insured property/assets, and whether you require replacement on a 'new for old' basis. It is also important to consider other costs such as removal of debris and any additional costs that may be required to replace the damaged property/asset. The value of the property/assets insured may need to be updated if you change locations, renovate or expand your premises, or purchase new property/assets (especially if your purchases are substantial).

In some cases insured property (like a motor vehicle) may depreciate in value or you may want to reduce the insured values to ensure that you are paying a competitive premium.

If you want to discuss whether insured property/asset values should be changed in your policies, please contact your Account Manager for assistance. If a change to the value of the property/assets insured under your policies is not notified to us, we cannot communicate these changes to the insurer.

Average or co-insurance

Some policies contain an Average clause. This means that if you insure for less than the full value of the property, your claim may be reduced in proportion to the amount of the under-insurance. These clauses are also called "Co-Insurance" clauses.

A simple example is as follows:

Full (Replacement) Value	$1,000,000
Sum Insured	$ 500,000
Therefore you would be self-insured for 50% of the Full Value.
Amount of Claim, say	$ 100,000
Amount payable by Insurers as a result of the application of Average/Co-Insurance, i.e. 50%,	$ 50,000

Some Business Interruption policies contain an Average/Co-Insurance clause, but the calculation is different. Generally, the Rate of Gross Profit, Revenue or Rentals (as applicable) is applied to the Annual Turnover, Revenue or Rentals (as applicable) (after adjustment for business trends or other circumstances).

If you are in any doubt about whether and how Average/Co-Insurance clauses apply to your insurances, please contact your Account Manager for assistance.

Subrogation and/or hold harmless agreements

You can prejudice your rights to claim under your insurance if you make any agreement with a third party that will prevent or limit the Insurer from recovering the loss from that party (or another party who would otherwise be liable). This can occur when you sign a contract containing an indemnity clause, "hold harmless" clause or a release – unless you obtain the Insurer's consent in advance.

This is because some policies contain a 'contractual liability exclusions' that mean the Insurer can refuse to pay or reduce the amount it is liable to pay by the extent to which it is unable to recover from the third party. These exclusions are often found in public and products liability, broadform liability and professional indemnity policies.

Examples of such agreements are the "hold harmless" clauses which are often found in leases, in property management contracts, in maintenance or supply contracts from burglar alarm or fire protection installers and in repair contracts. Other contracts you sign from time to time relating to your business operations (e.g. supply agreements, equipment hire contracts, event hire contracts, labour hire contracts, subcontracts, design and construct contracts, consultancy agreements etc.) may contain indemnity clauses and releases which may trigger the operation of policy exclusions or breach the conditions of your insurance.

Do not sign a contract or lease without contacting your broker and/or taking legal advice as to whether the contract terms will prejudice your insurance protection under your policies. If you are in doubt or require further assistance, please consult your Account Manager.

Leasing, hiring and borrowing property

When you lease, hire or borrow property, make sure that the contract clearly identifies who is responsible for insuring the property. This will help avoid arguments after a loss and ensure that any claims are efficiently processed.

Industrial Special Risks policies automatically cover property which you are responsible to insure, subject to the policy excess. The decision as to who should insure the property is not left to your discretion. You may have other insurance (for example, public liability) which may assist you meet claims relating to property damage or personal injury caused to or by property which you lease or hire. Please note, there is usually a sub-limit on the amount of claims that can be made for damage to property in your temporary care, custody or control.

If the responsibility to insure lies with the owner, we recommend you try to ensure the lease or hire conditions waive any rights of recovery against you, even when the damage is due to your negligence. This will prevent the owner's Insurer making a recovery against you.

If there are no conditions relating to responsibility to insure in the hire or lease contract, you should write to the owner asking who is to insure the property.

Unnamed parties

If you require a person to be named as a co-insured, a joint insured, an insured person or if you require the interest of a third party to be covered by your policy, you must request this in advance. Most policy conditions will not provide indemnity to other parties (e.g., mortgagees, lessors, principals etc) unless their interest is properly noted on the policy. Please note, while we can ask, we cannot guarantee that an insurer will accommodate a request to include a further party as an insured under your policy or to note the interests of another party on your policy.

If this is required under a contract or agreement, do not sign the contract without checking with us whether the insurer is prepared to include the other party as an insured or note that party's interests. You should also be aware that it may not be in your best interests to make arrangements to have someone else insured under the terms of your policy. We can advise you about this.

If you would like assistance or guidance with the insurance requirements under a contract, please consult your Account Manager.

Insurance placed with unauthorised foreign insurers

If your risk is atypical or the insurance cannot reasonably be placed with an Australian authorised insurer, we may recommend that you insure with an unauthorised foreign insurer.

An unauthorised foreign insurer is an insurer that is not authorised under the Insurance Act 1973 (Act) to conduct insurance business in Australia and is not subject to the provisions of that Act, which establishes a system of financial supervision of general insurers in Australia that is monitored by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA).

The insurer cannot be a declared general insurer for the purpose of Part VC of the Insurance Act 1973, and, if the insurer becomes insolvent, you will not be covered by the Federal Government's Financial Claims Scheme provided under Part VC of that Act.

If we do recommend that you insure, vary or renew your insurance with an unauthorised foreign insurer, we will tell you about that insurer and which policies we have placed with them.

You should consider whether you require further information regarding:

- The country in which the insurer is incorporated, and what scheme of financial supervision of insurers applies;
- The paid up capital of the insurer;
- The insurer's rating by credit rating agencies;
- The insurer's financial reports; and
- Which country's laws will determine disputes in relation to the policy.

As your insurance broker, we do not warrant or guarantee the current or ongoing solvency or financial viability of the insurer because we have no control over the insurer's performance and this can be affected by many complex commercial and economic factors. The solvency of an insurer can change significantly between the time an insurance contract is entered into and the time a claim may be made. If you have concerns about the insurer's solvency you should review the insurer's credit rating from time to time.

Claims occurring prior to commencement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that most of your policies do not provide indemnity in respect of events that occurred before the insurance commenced. They cover events that occur during the time the policy is current.

Claims made during the period of insurance

Some policies (for example, professional indemnity insurance) provide cover on a "claims made" basis.

This means that claims that are first advised to you (or made against you) and reported to your insurer during the period that the policy is current are insured under that policy, irrespective of when the incident causing the claim occurred (unless there is a date beyond which the policy does not cover – this is called a "retroactive date").

If you become aware of circumstances which could give rise to a claim and notify the insurer during the period that the policy is current, a claim later arising out of those circumstances should also be covered by the policy that is current at the time of the notification, regardless of when the claim is actually made or when the incident causing the claim occurred.

In order to ensure that your entitlement to claim under the policy is protected, you must report all incidents that may give rise to a claim against you to the Insurers without delay after they come to your attention and before the policy expires.

Non-renewable insurance

Cover under your policies terminates on the date shown in this Manual or as indicated in our tax invoice or adjustment note.

While insurers will send renewal offers for most insurance policies, there are some which are not "renewable". For these, if you wish to effect similar insurance for a subsequent period, you will need to complete a further proposal before the current policy expires so that we can seek terms of insurance and quotations on your behalf.

Cooling-off notice

If you decide that you do not require this contract of insurance, you have 14 days (or longer if the insurer allows it) from either the date you receive confirmation of this insurance contract and the date 5 days after the date the insurance contract was arranged (whichever occurs earlier) to change your mind. You must tell the insurer in writing that you wish to return the insurance contract and have the premium repaid.

If you do so the insurance contract will be terminated from the time you notified the insurer. The insurer may retain its reasonable administration and transaction costs and a short-term premium.

You cannot return the contract of insurance if it has already expired or if you have made a claim under it.

Essential reading of policy wording

The policy wordings for your insurances have either been provided to you or will be sent to you as soon as they are received from your Insurers. We recommend that you read these documents carefully as soon as possible and advise us in writing of any aspects which are not clear to you or if any aspect of the cover does not meet with your requirements.
